IN UNEMPLOYMENT PARLEY.

Washington.-Probably 30 representatives of various interests will sit in the approaching conference on unemployment, Secretary Hoover announced after a conference with President Harding. Secretary Wallace, who visited the White House with Mr. Hoover, discussed representation of agriculture at the unemployment meeting.

Secretary Hoover said it had been hoped to hold down the membership to about 20 persons, but the difficulty in securing adequate representation for all interests and for the entire country compelled expansion to a probable
